Corporate & Group Planning

Planning fees per attendee-night, plus supplier commission and package margin.

The claim, and the check

Arithmetic verified. Inputs tested against published prices, September 2026.

YOUR CLAIM

$750,000

100 group trips at $7,500 net each.

Arithmetic exact. The cited comparable is not.

WHAT THE RESEARCH SAYS

Pilot is free

Pilot charges no planning fee — it monetises hotel bookings. But the real retreat market does pay, and your $25–100 per attendee-night is a credible 4–12% of trip cost.

What the market actually pays

[V] = verified against a cited public source · [E] estimated · [A] assumed

1	Mid-tier retreat, all-in	$400-700 pp/night	[V]
2	Premium / executive offsite	$750-1,200 pp/night	[V]
3	Multi-day offsite total	$3,500-6,500 pp	[V]
4	Lean domestic, no flights	$1,000-1,800 pp	[V]
5	Pilot's planning fee	$0	[V]

THE BINDING CONSTRAINT

Founder hours. This is a services P&L.

At 22 hours per group trip, 100 trips is 2,200 hours — more than a full FTE beyond the founders, and realistically two once sales and corporate procurement are counted.

$750,000 is revenue, not profit.

What has to be true

Three conditions. If any fails, the path does not deliver.

1

Sell the first trip to a company you know

No users, no volume, no integration required. Just a buyer.

2

Hire a contractor planner

At ~$1,200 per trip delivered. The founders cannot absorb 45 trips a year.

3

Clear corporate procurement

Contracts, liability, insurance. Slower than selling to an individual.

VERDICT

The fastest path to a real dollar.
Start this month.

The same motion as your concierge offer, sold to companies instead of individuals, at 10-30× the ticket.

Its weakness: it does not compound and does not transfer to an acquirer.
