

XPMatch

Taste-matched travel planning. A stay, three things to do and three places to eat that fit you, on a map, in

Presenter

Pre-launch

Company

Date

September 2026

What XPMatch is

One product, two buyers.

The traveller — $49/year. Adults 28 to 45 taking two to four trips

The advisor — $49 per seat/month. Travel advisors with 0-3 years

The difference — Verified Google place links, scored against model

Why now

37% of US travellers used AI for planning this spring.

43% usage among affluent travellers.

78% of travel advisors now charge a planning fee.

Fee ranges between $100 and $1,500 per trip.

Fora reached a $1B valuation with 15,000 advisors.

97% of these advisors are new to the profession.

Expedia acquired AI planner Layla in July 2026.

Layla established both the category and the buyer.

Where We Stand

Zero revenue, zero customers

No way to accept payment

Product built and running

Commercial gates ahead

Figures are projections

20 of 38 assumptions unverified

The Offer Ladder

Trip Pass — $19 for one trip, 60 days. First purchase ease.

Plus — $49 per year. Matches Layla and Triplt Pro.

Concierge — $149 to $399 per trip, 48-hour delivery.

Advisor seats — $49 per month. 89% margin, $1,600 LTV.

The Core Model

Three-year projection from a live 1,761-formula model.

Year 1: revenue $40,123, gross profit $31,980.

Year 2: revenue $190,673, gross profit $131,331.

Year 3: revenue $427,320, gross profit $295,873.

Year-1 SDE is negative $5,575

This is the key figure in the analysis: Year 1 operating profit is $20,880, yet SDE is negative $5,575 due to unpaid founder work.

Year 1 Breakdown

The unpaid contributions of the founders exceed the operating profit, leading to a negative SDE of $5,575 in the initial year.

Unit economics

The place catalog enables the $49/year plan.

Cost per active user before: $10/month.

Cost per active user after: $1.40 to $2.00/month.

Blended gross margin in Year 3: 69%.

Advisor seat gross margin: 89%.

Business capital required: $12,061.

Seven revenue paths, tested

Grounded Year-3 revenue after checking every input against published prices across various revenue streams.

Revenue Breakdown

This chart presents the financial returns from different revenue sources, validating figures through published prices for Year-3.

Portfolio Reality

Seven paths do not add up; staffing is lacking.

Total stated: $8.15M.

Demand total: $1,103,024 in Year 3.

Paths 2, 3, 5 overlap trips/costs.

Paths 1 and 5 share budgets.

Require 3.34 FTE, only 1.25 available.

The Sequence

Now — corporate and group planning. The only path needing no users

This week — booking links. Near-100% margin, compounds with every

Months 2 to 9 — white-label DMO. Strategic buyer pays a premium

Months 6 to 18 — membership at $49 to $79. The engine that compo

What could kill this

Consumers will not pay. Signal: Trip Pass conversion under 2% by 8

The Ask

$60,061 and twelve months.

$12,061 for business capital plus $48,000 for runway.

$25,000 available, $35,061 gap.

First decision: Close the gap or adjust scenario.

Next step: Sell three trips to test and generate cash.